CAP. XXX.

An Act for the Attainder of ſeveral perſons Guilty of the Horrid Murther of His late Sacred Majeſty King CHARLES the Firſt.

The horrid Murther of King Charles the Firſt how firſt contrived and plotted.

IN all humble manner ſhew unto your moſt excellent Majeſty, your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, That the horrid and execrable Murther of your Majeſties Royal Father, our late moſt Gracious Sovereign Charles the Firſt, of ever bleſſed and glorious Memory, hath been committed by a party of wretched men, deſperately wicked, and hardened in their impiety, who having firſt plotted and contrived the ruine and deſtruction of this excellent Monarchy, and with it, of the true Reformed Proteſtant Religion, which had been ſo long protected by it and flouriſhed under it, found it neceſſary in order to the carrying on of their pernicious and traiterous deſigns, to throw down all the Bulwarks and Fences of Law, and to ſubvert the very being and conſtitution of Parliament, that ſo they might at laſt make their way open for any further attempts upon the Sacred perſon of his Majeſty himſelf; (2) and that for the more eaſie reffecting thereof, they did firſt ſeduce ſome part of the then Army into a compliance, and then kept the reſt in ſubjection to them, partly for hopes of preferment, and chiefly for fear of loſing their imployments and arrears, until by theſe, and other more odious arts and devices, they had fully ſtrengthened themſelves both in power and faction; which being done, they did declare againſt all manner of Treaties with the perſon of the King, even then while a Treaty by advice of both Houſes of Parliament was in being, Remonſtrate againſt the Houſes of Parliament for ſuch proceedings, ſeize npon his Royal perſon while the Commiſſioners were returned to the Houſe of Parliament with his Anſwer; and when his Conceſſions had been Voted a ground for peace, ſeize upon the Houſe of Commons, ſeclude and impriſon ſome Members, force out others, and there being left but a ſmall remnant of their own Creatures (not a tenth part of the whole) did ſeek to ſhelter themſelves by this weak pretence, under the name and authority of a Parliament, (3) and in that name laboured to proſecute what was yet behind and unfiniſhed of their long intended Treaſon and Conſpiracy; To this purpoſe they prepared an Ordinance for erecting a prodigious and unheard of Tribunal, which they called An high Court of Juſtice, for Tryal of his Majeſty; and having eaſily procured it to paſs in their Honſe of Commons, as it then ſtood moulded, ventured to ſend it up from thence to the Peers then ſitting, who totally rejected it; whereupon their rage and fury increaſing, they preſume to paſs it alone, as an Act of the Commons, and in the Name of the Commons of England; (4) and having gained the pretence of Law made by a power of their own making, purſue it with all poſſible force and cruelty, until at laſt, upon the thirtieth day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and eight, His Sacred Majeſty was brought unto a Scaffold, and there publickly Murthered before the Gates of his own Royal Palace; (5) And becauſe by this horrid action the Proteſtant Religion hath received the greateſt wound and reproch, and the people of England the moſt unſupportable ſhame and infamy that was poſſible for the enemies of God and the King to bring upon us, whilſt the Fanatick rage of a few Miſcreants (who were as far from being true Proteſtants, as they were from being true Subjects) ſtands imputed by our Adverſaries to the whole Nation; (6) We therefore your Majeſties ſaid dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, do hereby renounce, abominate, and proteſt againſt that impious Fact, the execrable Murther, and moſt unparallel'd Treaſon committed againſt the Sacred perſon and life of our ſaid late Sovereign, your Majeſties moſt Royal Father, and all proceedings tending thereunto, and do beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be declared, (7) and be it hereby declared, That by the undoubted & Fundamental Laws of this Kingdom, neither the Peers of this Realm, nor the Commons, nor both together in Parliament or out of Parliament, nor the people collectively or repreſentatively, nor any other perſons whatſoever, ever had, have, hath, or ought to have, any Coercive power over the perſons of the Kings of this Realm; (8) And for the better vindication of our ſelves to poſterity, and as a laſting Monument of our otherwiſe inexpreſſible deteſtation and abhorrency of this villanous and abominable Fact, We do further beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted, (9) And be it hereby enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That every thirtieth day of January, unleſs it falls out to be upon the Lords day, and then the next day following, ſhall be for ever hereafter ſet apart to be kept and obſerved in all the Churches and Chappels of theſe your Majeſties Kingdoms of England and Ireland, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and the Iſles of Jerſey and Guernſey, and all other your Majeſties Dominions, as an Anniverſary day of Faſting and Humiliation, to implore the Mercy of God, that neither the Guilt of that Sacred and Innocent Blood, nor thoſe other Sins by which God was provoked to deliver up both us and our King into the hands of cruel and unreaſonable men, may at any time hereafter be viſited upon us or our poſterity. (10) And whereas Oliver Crowmwel deceaſed, Henry Ireton deceaſed, John Bradſhaw deceaſed, and Thomas Pride deceaſed, John Liſle, William Say, Sir Hardreſs Waller, Valentine Walton, Thomas Harriſon, Edward Whalley, William Heveningham, Iſaac Penington, Henry Martin, John Barkſtead, Gilbert Millington, Edmund Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, Robert Tichbourn, Owen Row, Robert Lilburn, Adrian Scroop, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, John Carew, John Jones, Miles Corbet, Henry Smith, Gregory Clement, Thomas Wogan, Edmond Harvey, Thomas Scot, William Cawley, John Downs, Nicholas Love, Vincent Potter, Auguſtine Garland, John Dixwel, George Fleetwood, Simon Meyn, James Temple, Peter Temple, Daniel Blagrave, Thomas Wait, John Cook, Andrew Broughton, Edward Dendy, William Hewlet, Hew Peters, Francis Hacker, Daniel Axtel, are notoriouſly known to have been wicked and active Inſtruments in the proſecution and compaſſing that Trayterous Murther of his late Majeſty; for which the ſaid Sir Hardreſs Waller, Thomas Harriſon, William Heveningham, Iſaac Pennington, Henry Meyn, Gilbert Millington, Robert Titchbourn,

An Act for making the Precinct of Covent-Garden Parochial. PR.

Anno Regni CAROLI II. Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ, Decimo tertio.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the Eighth day of May, Anno Dom. 1661. in the Thirteenth year of the Reign of our moſt gracious Sovereign Lord CHARLES the Second, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. And there continued until Tueſday the Thirtieth of July, 1661. And from that day the ſaid Parliament was adjourned unto the Twentieth of November then next following; To the high pleaſure of Almighty God, and to the Weal publick of this Realm, were enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

An Act for Safety and Preſervation of his Majeſties Perſon and Government, againſt Treaſonable and Seditious Practiſes and Attempts.

The grounds and Inducements of this Act.

THe Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament deeply weighing and conſidering the Miſeries and Calamities of well nigh twenty years, before your Majeſties happy Return, and withall, reflecting upon the cauſes and occaſions of ſo great and deplorable Confuſions, do in all humility and thankfulneſs acknowledge Your Majeſties incomparable Grace and Goodneſs to your People, in your Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, by which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to deliver your Subjects, not only from the puniſhment, but alſo from the reproch of their former miſcarriages, which unexampled Piety and Clemency of your Majeſty hath enflamed the hearts of us your Subjects with an ardent deſire to expreſs all poſſible Zeal and Duty in the Care and Preſervation of your Majeſties perſon (in whoſe Honour and Happineſs conſiſts the good and welfare of your people) and in preventing (as much as may be) all Treaſonable and Seditious practiſes and attempts for the time to come: (2) And becauſe the growth and encreaſe of the late Troubles and Diſorders, did in a very great meaſure proceed from a multitude of Seditious Sermons, Pamphlets and Speeches, daily preached, printed and publiſhed, with a tranſcendent boldneſs defaming the Perſon and Government of your Majeſty and your Royal Father, wherein men were too much encouraged, and (above all) from a wilful miſtake of the Supream and lawful Authority, whilſt men were forward to cry up and maintain thoſe Orders and Ordinances, Oaths and Covenants, to be Acts Legal and Warrantable, which in themſelves had not the leaſt colour of Law or Juſtice to ſupport them; from which kind of diſtempers, as the preſent Age is not wholly freed, ſo Poſterity may be apt to relapſe into them, if a timely remedy be not provided: (3) We therefore, the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, having duly conſidered the premiſſes, and remembring that in the Thirteenth year of the Reign of Queen Elizaeeth of ever bleſſed memory, a right good and profitable Law was made for preſervation of her Majeſties Perſon, Do moſt humbly beſeech your moſt excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted, (4) And be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoever, after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, during the natural life of our moſt gracious Sovereign Lord the King, (whom Almighty God preſerve and bleſs with a long and proſperous Reign) ſhall within the Realm, or without, compaſs, imagine, invent, deviſe, or intend death or deſtruction, or any bodily harm tending to death or deſtruction, maim or wounding, impriſonment or reſtraint of the perſon of the ſame our Sovereign Lord the King, (5) or to deprive or depoſe him from the Stile, Honour, or Kingly Name of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, or of any other of his Majeſties Dominions or Countreys, (6) or to levy War againſt his Majeſty within this Realm, or without, (7) or to move, or ſtir any Foreigner or Strangers with Force to invade this Realm, or any other his Majeſties Dominions or Countreys, being under his Majeſties Obeyſance: (8) And ſuch Compaſſings, Imaginations, Inventions, Devices or Intentions, or any of them, ſhall expreſs, utter or declare, by any Printing, Writing, Preaching, or malicious and adviſed Speaking, being legally convicted thereof upon the Oaths of two lawful and credible Witneſſes, upon trial, or otherwiſe convicted or attainted by due courſe of Law, then every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, ſhall be deemed, declared and adjudged to be Traytors, and ſhall ſuffer pains of death, and alſo loſe and forfeit as in caſes of High Treaſon.

Seditious Sermons, Pamphlets and Speeches.

13 Eliz. cap. 1.

What ſhall be adjudged Treaſon during the life of the King.

Being declared and proved by two witneſſes.

Convicted by due courſe of Law.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons at any time after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, during his Majeſties Life, ſhall maliciouſly and adviſedly publiſh or affirm the King to be an Heretick or a Papiſt, or that he endeavours to introduce Popery, (2) or ſhall maliciouſly and adviſedly, by Writing, Printing, Preaching, or other ſpeaking, expreſs, publiſh, utter or declare any Words, Sentences, or other thing or things, to incite or ſtir up the people to hatred or diſlike of the Perſon of his Majeſty, or the eſtabliſhed Government; (3) then every ſuch perſon and perſons, being thereof legally convicted, ſhall be diſabled to have or enjoy, and is hereby diſabled and made incapable of having, holding, enjoying, or exerciſing any Place, Office, or Promotion Eccleſiaſtical, Civil or Military, or any other Imployment in Church or State, other then that of his Peerage; and ſhall likewiſe be liable to ſuch further and other puniſhments as by the Common Laws or Statutes of this Realm may be inflicted in ſuch caſes: (4) And to the end that no man hereafter may be miſled into any ſeditious or unquiet demeanor, out of an Opinion that the Parliament begun and held at Weſtminſter, upon the third day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and forty, is yet in being, which is undoubtedly diſſolved and determined, and ſo is hereby declared and adjudged to be fully diſſolved and determined; (5) or out of an Opinion that there lies any Obligation upon him from any Oath, Covenant or Engagement whatſoever, to endeavour a change of Government, either in Church or State; (6) or out of an Opinion, that both Houſes of Parliament, or either of them, have a Legiſlative Power without the King; (7) All which Aſſertions have been ſeditiouſly maintained in ſome Pamphlets lately printed, and are daily promoted by the Active Enemies of our Peace and Happineſs:

Offences (during his Majeſties life) which diſable perſons to bear any Office.

Peerage.

Stat. 17 Car. 1. cap. 7.

The Parliament begun 3. of Nov. 1640. not in being. St. 13 Car. 2. cap. 1.

No Legiſlative power in either or both Houſes of Parliament without the King.

III. Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons at any time after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, ſhall maliciouſly and adviſedly, by Writing, Printing, Preaching, or other ſpeaking, expreſs, publiſh, utter, declare or affirm, That the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter upon the Third day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and forty, is not yet diſſolved, or is not determined, or that it ought to be in being, or hath yet any continuance or exiſtence, (2) or that there lies any Obligation upon him, or any other perſon, from any Oath, Covenant or Engagement whatſoever, to endeavour a change of Government, either in Church or State, (3) or that both Houſes of Parliament, or either Houſe of Parliament, have, or hath a Legiſlative Power without the King, or any other words to the ſame effect; (4) That then every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, ſhall incur the danger and penalty of a Premunire mentioned in a Statute made in the ſixteenth year of the Reign of King Richard the Second: (5) And it is hereby alſo declared, That the Oath uſually called the Solemn League and Covenant, was in it ſelf an unlawful Oath, and impoſed upon the Subjects of this Realm againſt the Fundamental Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom, (6) and that all Orders and Ordinances, or pretended Orders and Ordinances, of both or either Houſes of Parliament, for impoſing of Oaths, Covenants or Engagements, Levying of Taxes, or Raiſing of Forces and Arms, to which the Royal Aſſent, either in perſon or by Commiſſion, was not expreſly had or given,

Premunire.

The Solemn League and Covenant unlawful, and illegally impoſed.

ven were in the firſt creation and making, and ſtill are, and ſo ſhall be taken to be null and goid to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever. (7) Provided nevertheleſs, That all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, who have been, or ſhall at any time hereafter be queſtioned for any thing acted or done by colour of any the Orders or Ordinances herein before mentioned and declared to be null and void, and are Indempnified by an Act entituled, An Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, made in the Twelfth year of his Majeſties Reign that now is, or ſhall be Indempnified by any Act of Parliament, ſhall and may make ſuch uſe of the ſaid Orders and Ordinances for their Indempnity according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Act, and no other, as he or they might have done if this Act had not been made; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Certain Orders and Ordinances of both or either Houſes of Parliament declared void. Proviſo, the ſaid Orders, &c. may be made uſe according to the Act of Indempnity. St. 12 Car. 2. c. 11.

IV. Provided always, That no perſon be proſecuted for any of the Offences in this Act mentioned (other then ſuch as are made and declared to be High Treaſon) unleſs it be by Order of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, under his or their Sign Manual, or by Order of the Council Table of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, directed unto the Attorney General for the time being, or ſome other of the Council learned to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the time being; nor ſhall any perſon or perſons by vertue of this preſent Act incur any the penalties herein before mentioned, unleſs he or they be proſecuted within ſix months next after the Offence committed, and indicted thereupon within three months after ſuch proſecution; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No perſon to be proſecuted for any offences in this Act (other then Treaſon) unleſs by ſpecial order from his Majeſty: And within ſix months after the offence committed.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be indicted, arraigned, condemned, convicted or attainted for any of the Treaſons or Offence aforeſaid, unleſs the ſame Offendor or Offendors be thereof accuſed by the Teſtimony and Depoſition of two lawful and credible Witneſſes upon Oath, (5) which Witneſſes at the time of the ſaid Offendor or Offendors arraignment, ſhall be brought in perſon before him or them face to face, and ſhall openly avow and maintain upon Oath, what they have to ſay againſt him or them concerning the Treaſon or Offences contained in the ſaid Indictment, unleſs the party or parties arraigned ſhall willingly without violence confeſs the ſame.

Treaſons and offences within this Act to be proved by two witneſſes viva voce.

VI. Provided likewiſe, and be it enacted, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to deprive either of the Houſes of Parliament, or any of their Members, of their juſt ancient Freedom and Priviledge of debating any Matters of Buſineſs which ſhall be propounded and debated in either of the ſaid Houſes, or at any Conferences or Committees of both or either of the ſaid Houſes of Parliament, or touching the repeal or alteration of any old, or preparing any new Laws, or the redreſſing any publick Grievance; but that the ſaid Members of either of the ſaid Houſes, and the Aſſiſtants of the Houſe of Peers, and every of them, ſhall have the ſame freedom of ſpeech, and all other Priviledges whatſoever, as they had before the making of this Act; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. II.

An Act for prevention of Vexations and Oppreſſions by Arreſts, and of Delays in Suits of Law.

The ancient fundamental Law in proceeding to Arreſts upon Suits, to expreſs the true cauſe of Action in the Proceſs.

WHereas by the ancient and fundamental Laws of this Realm, in caſe where any perſon is Sued, Impleaded, or Arreſted by any Writ, Bill or Proceſs iſſuing out of any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in any Common Plea, at the Suit of any common perſon, the true cauſe of Action ought to be ſet forth & particularly expreſſed in ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, whereby the Defendant may have certain knowledge of the cauſe of the Suit, and the Officer who ſhall execute ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, may know how to take Security for the appearance of the Defendant to the ſame, and the Sureties for ſuch appearance may rightly underſtand for what cauſe they become engaged; (2) And whereas there is a great complaint of the people of this Realm, that for divers years now laſt paſt, very many of his Majeſties good Subjects have been Arreſted upon general Writs of Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum fregit, Bills of Middleſex, Latitats, and other like Writs iſſued out of the Courts of Kings Bench and Common Pleas, not expreſſing any particular or certain cauſe of Action, and thereupon kept Priſoners for a long time for want of Bail, Bonds with Sureties for appearances having been demanded in ſo great ſums, that few or none have dared to be Security for the appearances of ſuch perſons ſo Arreſted and Impriſoned, although in truth there hath been little or no cauſe of Action, (3) and oftentimes there are no ſuch perſons who are named Plaintiffs, but thoſe Arreſts have been many times procured by malicious perſons, to vex and oppreſs the Defendants, or to force from them unreaſonable and unjuſt compoſitions for obtaining their Liberty; and by ſuch evil practices many men have been, and are daily undone, and deſtroyed in their Eſtates, without poſſibility of having reparation, the Actors imployed in ſuch practices having been (for the moſt part) poor and lurking perſons, and their actings ſo ſecret, that it hath been found very difficult to make true diſcories or proof thereof:

Perſons arreſted by Proceſs out of the Kings Bench or Common Pleas, not expreſſing the cauſe of action, how to be bailed and ſet to liberty upon their own Bonds for appearance.

II. For remedy and prevention of which ſo great growing evils and miſchief, and alſo for diſcouraging all frivilous and unjuſt Suits, and cauſeleſs Arreſts for the future, (2) Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, no perſon or perſons who ſhall happen to be Arreſted by any Sheriff, Under-ſheriff, Coroner, Steward or Bailiff of any Franchiſe or Liberty, or by any other Officer, Miniſter, Under-bailiff, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever within this Realm, having, or pretending to have authority or warrant in that behalf, by force or colour of any Writ, Bill or Proceſs iſſuing, or to be iſſuing out of his Majeſties ſaid Courts of the Kings Bench and Common Pleas, or either of them, in which ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs, the certainty and true cauſe of Action is not expreſſed particularly, and for which the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Writ, Bill, or Proceſs named, is and are Bailable by the Statute in that behalf made in the Three and twentieth year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Sixth, ſhall be forced or compelled to give Security, or to enter into Bond with Sureties for the Appearances of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo Arreſted, at the day and place in the ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs ſpecified or contained, in any penalty or ſum of money, exceeding the ſum of forty pounds of lawful money of England, to be conditioned for ſuch Appearances; (3) and that all Sheriffs, and other Officers and Miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall let to Bail, and deliver out of Priſon, and from their, and every of their Cuſtodies reſpectively, all and every perſon and perſons whatſoever, by them, or any of them Arreſted upon any ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, wherein the certainty and true cauſe of Action is not particularly expreſſed, upon Security in the ſum of Forty pounds and no more, given for appearance of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo Arreſted, unto the ſaid Sheriff or Officer aforeſaid, according to the ſaid Statute in the ſaid Three and twentieth year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Henry the Sixth, in that behalf made and provided.

23 H.6. cap.10.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That upon Appearance to be entred in the Term wherein ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs is returnable, with the reſpective Officer in that behalf, for the ſaid perſon or perſons, by Attorney or Attorneys in the ſaid reſpective Courts from whence the ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs iſſued, unto ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, the Bond or Bonds ſo given for Appearance thereunto, be and are hereby ſatisfied and diſcharged; (2) and that after ſuch Appearance ſo Entred, no Amerciaments be ſet or eſtreated upon or againſt any Sheriff or other Officer aforeſaid, or any other perſon whatſoever, concerning the want of ſuch Appearance; (3) and unleſs the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs named, ſhall put into the Court from whence ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs did iſſue, his or their Bill or Declaration againſt the perſon or perſons ſo Arreſted in ſome perſonal Action, or Ejectione firmæ of Lands or Tenements, before the end of the Term next following after Appearance, that then a Non-ſuit for want of a Declaration, may be Entred againſt the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in the ſaid Courts reſpectively; (4) and that every Defendant in every ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs named, ſhall or may have Judgment to recover Coſts againſt every ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, to be Aſſeſſed, Taxed and Levied in ſuch manner, and according as it is provided by the Statute for Coſts, made in the Three and twentieth year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Eighth; Any former or other Act, Statute, Ordinance, Law, Cuſtom, Order, Courſe or Uſage of either

Bonds (given for) diſcharged upon appearance.

Non-ſuit for want of a Declaration before the end of the next term altar appearance and judgment and coſts againſt the Plaintiff.

of the ſaid Courts to the contrary thereof heretofore had, made, admitted, or uſed in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Arreſts upon Capias utlagatum, Attachments upon Reſcous, Contempts, and of Priviledge, excepted.

IV Provided always, That this Act, nor any clauſe or thing herein before ſpecified or contained ſhall not extend, nor be conſtrued or taken to extend unto any Arreſts hereafter to be made, upon or by vertue of any Writ of Capias utlagatum, Attachment upon Reſcous, or Attachment upon any Contempt, or of any Attachment of Priviledge, at the Suit of any priviledged perſon, or of any other Attachment, for Contempt whatſoever, iſſuing or to be iſſuing out of either of the ſaid Courts, although there be no particular certainty of the cauſe of Action expreſſed or contained in the ſaid Writs, (2) but that nevertheleſs no Sheriff nor Under-ſheriff, nor any of the Officers or Miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall diſcharge any perſon or perſons taken upon any Writ of Capias utlagatum, out of Cuſtody, without a lawful Superſedeas, firſt had and received for the ſame; (3) And that upon the ſaid Writs of Attachment, ſuch lawful courſe be taken for Security for Appearance therein, as hath been heretofore uſed; Any thing herein before expreſſed to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

How perſons having cauſe of Action may proceed againſt Priſoners in the Fleet.

V. And whereas many perſons out of ill intent, to delay their Creditors from recovering their juſt Debts, continue priſoners in the Fleet, who cannot be proceeded againſt in ſuch manner as they might be, if they were at large: Now for the better enabling all perſons to recover their juſt Debts and Demands againſt ſuch priſoners, (2) Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons whatſoever, who now hath or have, or which at any time hereafter ſhall have cauſe of any perſonal Action againſt any perſon being a priſoner in the Priſon of the Fleet, may ſue forth an Original Writ upon his or their cauſe of Action; and that a Writ of Habeas corpus be granted to every ſuch perſon or perſons, being Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, deſiring the ſame, to be directed to the Warden of the ſame Priſon, to have the Body of ſuch priſoner before the Juſtices of the Common Pleas, at ſome certain day in any Term, to anſwer the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs upon his or their ſaid Cauſe of Action; and that if the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs at the ſaid day, put into the ſaid Court his or their Declaration, according to the ſaid Original Writ, againſt the ſaid priſoner being preſent at the Bar, the ſaid perſon ſhall be bound to appear in perſon, or to put in an Attorney to appear for him in the ſaid Action; (3) and unleſs the ſaid Defendant plead upon a Rule given, to be out at eight days at the leaſt after ſuch Appearance, Judgment by Nihil dicit may be entred againſt ſuch Defendant as appearing in perſon, which ſhall be good and effectual in Law; (4) and ſuch charge in Court by Declarations, ſignified by Rule unto the ſaid Warden, ſhall be a good cauſe of detention of ſuch priſoner in his cuſtody, from which he ſhall not be diſcharged without a lawful Superſedeas or Rule of Court; (5) And if the ſaid Warden ſhall do otherwiſe, he ſhall be reſponſible to the Court, and to the party grieved, for damages, by Action upon the Caſe to be brought againſt him for diſcharging ſuch priſoner.

Delays in Suits by reaſon of 15 days between the Teſte and Return of Writs, remedied in Actions perſonal.

Ejectione firme

VI. And whereas very many Suits commenced by Original Writs have been protracted and long delayed from Judgment and Execution, by reaſon of the neceſſity of having fifteen days at the leaſt, between the days of the Teſte and the days of Return of Writs now uſed in perſonal Actions, and alſo in Actions of Ejectione firmæ, for lands and tenements: (2) For remedy thereof, and for the more eaſie expediting Trials, and the better and more ſpeedy executing of Judgments for the time to come, (3) Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in all Actions of Debt, and all other perſonal Actions whatſoever, and alſo in all Actions of Ejectione firmæ, for lands or tenements now depending, or which at any time hereafter ſhall be depending by Original Writ, in either of his Majeſties Courts aforeſaid, after any Iſſue therein joyned to be tried by a Jury, and alſo after any Judgment had or obtained, or to be had or obtained in either the Courts aforeſaid, in any ſuch Action as aforeſaid, there ſhall not need to be fifteen days between the Teſte day, and the day of Return of any Writ or Writs of Venire facias, Habeas corpora Juratorum, or Diſtringas Juratores, Writs of Fieri facias, or Writs of Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, (4) and that the want of fifteen days between the Teſte day and the day of Return of any ſuch Writ, ſhall not be, nor ſhall be aſſigned, taken or adjudged to be any matter or cauſe of Error; Any Law, Cuſtom, Statute, Courſe or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Venire facias, Habeas corpora Jurator. Diſtringas Jurator. Fieri fac. Capias ad ſatisfaciendum.

Capias ad ſatisfaciendum where Exigent lieth after Judgment, or to make the Bail appear, excepted.

VII. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend to any Writ of Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, whereon a Writ of Exigent after Judgment is to be awarded, nor to Capias ad ſatisfaciendum againſt the Defendant, in order to make any Bail liable, but that the ſame continue and be as if this Act had never been made.

3 Jac. cap. 8. Touching ſtaying Executions by Superſedeas or Writs of Error, and in what Action it may be ſtayed.

VIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Third year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King James of bleſſed memory, a very good Law was made for avoiding unneceſſary delays of Execution; whereby it is enacted, That no Execution ſhall be ſtayed or delayed upon or by any Writ of Error, or Superſedeas thereupon to be ſued for the reverſing of any Judgment to be given in any Action or Bill of Debt, upon any ſingle Bond for Debt, or upon any Obligation with Condition for payment of Money onely, or upon any Action or Bill of Debt for Rent, or upon any Contract ſued in any of his Highneſs Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, Durham, or in his Highneſs Courts of great Seſſions in any of the twelve Shires of Wales, unleſs ſuch perſon or perſons in whoſe name or names ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be brought, with two ſufficient Sureties, ſuch as the Court wherein ſuch Judgment is or ſhall be given, ſhall allow of, ſhall firſt before ſuch ſtay made, or Superſedeas to be awarded, be bound to the party for whom any ſuch Judgment was or ſhould be given, by Recognizance to be acknowledged in the ſame Court, in double the ſum adjudged to be recovered by the ſaid former Judgment, to proſecute the ſaid Writ of Error with effect, and alſo to ſatisfie and pay (if the ſaid Judgment ſhall be affirmed) all and ſingular the debts, damages and Coſts adjudged, or to be adjudged upon the former Judgment, and all coſts and damages to be alſo awarded for the ſame delaying of Execution; which Law hath been found by experience to be very good and beneficial to the Common-wealth: (2) And foraſmuch as divers other Caſes within the ſame miſchief, by delays and ſtaying of Execution by Writs of Error and Superſedeas thereupon, are not provided for by the ſaid Statute, for further remedy againſt delays and ſtaying of Executions in the ſeveral Actions hereafter ſpecified,

In what Actions execution may be ſtayed (by Writ of Error) by this Statute.

IX. Be it further enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twentieth day of January, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, no Execution ſhall be ſtayed in any of the Courts aforeſaid, by any Writ or Writs of Error, or Superſedeas thereupon, after any Verdict and Judgment thereupon obtained in any Action of Debt, grounded upon the Statute made in the Second year of the Reign of the late King Edward the Sixth, for not ſetting forth of Tythes, nor in any Action upon the Caſe, upon any promiſe for the payment of money, Action ſur Trover, Action of Covenant, Detinue and Treſpaſs, unleſs ſuch Recogniſance, and in ſuch manner as by the ſaid recited former Act is directed, ſhall be firſt acknowledged in the ſaid Court where ſuch Judgment is given.

The Defendant to have double Coſts for delays of his execution by Writ of Error.

X. And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid day, ſhall ſue or proſecute any Writ or Writs of Error, for Reverſal of any Judgment whatſoever given after any Verdict in any of the Courts aforeſaid, and the ſaid Judgment ſhall afterwards be affirmed, then every ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall pay unto the Defendant or Defendants in the ſaid Writ or Writs of Error, his or their double Coſts to be aſſeſſed by the Court where ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be depending, for the delaying of Execution.

Popular Actions, or upon a penal Law, Indictments, &c. not within this Statute.

XI. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Action Popular, nor unto any other Action which is, or hereafter ſhall be brought upon any penal Law or Statute (except Debt for not ſetting out Tythes as aforeſaid) nor to any Indictment, Preſentment, Inquiſition, Information or Appeal; Any thing herein before expreſſed to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

St. 21 Jac. cap. 29. 25 Car. 2. cap. 3.

Whereas a great part of the lands, part of, and annexed to the Dutchy of Cornwall, have been held by ſundry Leaſes thereof made for years, and for one, two, and three Lives, by means whereof, the Tenants having fixed Eſtates, have been encouraged to improve and manure the ſame, and have improved the ſame, and therein laid out great ſums of money in Building and otherwiſe, to the great advantage of the publick; (2) And whereas for twenty years and more now laſt paſt, no ſuch Leaſes have been legally made; ſo that it is probable moſt of the Tenants Eſtates will be determined, or near determination ere that there can be any Eſtates well and legally renewed, unleſs remedy therefore be provided; by means whereof, waſt, ſpoil, and dilapidation are likely to happen, the lands worn out and decayed, and great diſturbance and impoveriſhment to the Tenants:

Leaſes by the King, of lands, &c. of the Dutchy of Cornwall, made good.

II. And whereas on the like conſideration, King Charles the Firſt was by ſpecial Law enabled to make ſuch Leaſes, (2) Be it enacted by our Sovereign Lord the King, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all Leaſes or Grants already made, or hereafter to be made within the ſpace of three years now next enſuing, by our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, by Letters Patents, Indentures or other Writings under his Great Seal of England, or Seal of the Court of Exchequer, or by Copy of Court-roll, according to the cuſtoms of the reſpective Manors, of any offices, parks, lands, tenements or hereditaments (other then Honors, Lordſhips or Manors) parcel of the poſſeſſions of the ſaid Dutchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the ſame, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the purport and contents of the ſaid Leaſes, Grants and Copies, againſt our Sovereign Lord the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and againſt all and every perſon or perſons that ſhall hereafter have, inherit or enjoy the ſaid Dukedom of Cornwall, by force of any Act of Parliament, or other limitation whatſoever.

Leaſes for above 31 years or three lives, excepted.

Not to be diſpuniſhable of waſte. The ancient rent to be reſerved.

III. Provided always, That every ſuch Leaſe ſo to be made of any parks, lands, tenements or hereditaments in poſſeſſion, ſhall be made but for three Lives or fewer, or for one and thirty years or under, or ſum other term of years determinable upon one, two, or three Lives, and not above; (2) And if ſuch Leaſes be made in Reverſion, that then the ſame, together with the Eſtates in poſſeſſion, do not exceed three Lives, or the term of one and thirty years, and not in any wiſe diſpuniſhable of waſte and ſo, as upon every ſuch Leaſe ſhall be reſerved the ancient or moſt uſual Rent, or more, or ſuch Rent as hath been yielded or paid for the greater part of twenty years next before the making of the ſaid Leaſes, and ſhall be reſerved due and payable by or to him or her that ſhall have the Inheritance, or other Eſtate of the ſaid parks, lands, tenements or hereditaments, and where no ſuch Rent hath been reſerved, or payable, That then upon every ſuch Leaſe, there ſhall be reſerved a reaſonable Rent, not being under the fourth part of the clear yearly value of the parks, lands, tenements or hereditaments, contained in ſuch Leaſe.

Covenants and conditions in ſuch leaſes, grants, or &c. ſhall be good.

IV. And be it further ordained and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That all Covenants, Conditions and Reſervations, and other Agreements contained in every Leaſe, Grant or Copy heretofore made, or hereafter ſo to be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the words and contents of the ſame, as well for and againſt them to whom the Reverſion of the ſame lands, tenements or hereditametns ſhall come, as for and againſt them to whom the Intereſt of the ſaid Leaſes, Grants or Copies ſhall come reſpectively, as if our Sovereign Lord the Kings Majeſty at the time of the making of ſuch Covenants, Conditions and Reſervations, and other Agreements, were ſeiſed of an abſolute Indefeaſible Eſtate in Fee-ſimple in the ſame lands, tenements, or hereditaments; (2) Saving always to all and every perſon and perſons, bodies politick and corporate, their heirs and ſucceſſors, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, (other then our ſaid Sovereign Lord the Kings Majeſty, and his Heirs, and all and every perſon and perſons that ſhall hereafter have, inherit or enjoy the ſaid Dukedom, of Cornwall, by force of any Act of Parliament or other limitation whatſoever) (3) all ſuch rights, titles, eſtates, cuſtoms, intereſts, terms, claims and demands whatſoever, of what kind, nature or quality whatſoever, or in, to or out of the ſaid offices, lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any of them as they or any of them had, or ought to have had before the making of this Act, to all intents and purpoſes, and in as large and ample manner and form as if this Act had never been had or made; This Act or any thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Saving of others Rights.

Quakers and Seperatiſts denying to take an Oath.

Whereas of late times certain perſons under the names of Quakers, and other Names of Seperation, have taken up, and maintained ſundry dangerous Opinions and Tenents, and (amongſt other) that the taking of an Oath in any caſe whatſoever, although before a lawful Magiſtrate, is altogether unlawful and contrary to the Word of God; And the ſaid perſons do dayly refuſe to take an Oath, though lawfully tendred, whereby it often happens that the truth is wholly ſuppreſſed, and the adminiſtration of Juſtice, much obſtructed: And where the ſaid perſons under a pretence of Religious Worſhip, do often aſſemble themſelves in great numbers in ſeveral parts of this Realm, to the great endangering of the publick peace and ſafety, and to the terror of the people, by maintaining a ſecret and ſtrict correſpondence amongſt themſelves, and in the mean time ſeperating and dividing themſelves from the reſt of his Majeſties good and loyal Subjects, and from the publick Congregations and uſual places of Divine Worſhip:

The penalty for refuſing to take a lawful Oath. 13 Car. 2. cap. 4.

The ſecond offence.

The third offence.

III. And

Who may hear and determine the Offences within this Act.

How perſons ſubmitting may be diſcharged from the penalties.

V. Provided always, and be it hereby further enacted, That if any of the ſaid perſons ſhall after ſuch conviction as aforeſaid, take ſuch Oath or Oaths, for which he or ſhe ſtands committed, and alſo give ſecurity, that he or ſhe ſhall for the time to come forbear to meet in any ſuch unlawful Aſſembly as aforeſaid, that then and from thenceforth, ſuch perſon and perſons ſhall be diſcharged from all the penalties aforeſaid; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Lords of the Parliament.

Foraſmuch as the common High-ways leading unto, and from the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Suburbs thereof, and other places within the preſent weekly Bills of Mortality, by reaſon of the multitude of Houſes lately built, and through the ſtopping and filling up the Ditches and Sewers, and neglect of timely reparations, are at preſent, and for ſome years paſt have been ſo miry and foul, as is not onely very noiſom, dangerous and inconvenient to the Inhabitants thereabouts, but to all the Kings Liege People Riding and Travelling to and from the ſaid Cities; May it therefore pleaſe your moſt excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted, (2) And be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That for the ſurveying, ordering and managing of the ſaid High-ways, Streets, Alleys, and other paſſages within the ſaid Cities and places aforeſaid, and all things neceſſary for the Repairing, Paving, or keeping Clean thereof, there be from henceforward Commiſſioners to be nominated by his Majeſty, under the Great Seal of England, not exceeding the number of one and twenty, beſide ſuch other Commiſſioners as are by this Act nominated and appointed (whereof the Surveyor of his Majeſties Works for the time being to be always one) that ſhall have their place of meeting at the Office of his Majeſties Works in Scotland-yard, or at ſome one other place, as they or the greater number of them at any meeting ſhall direct from time to time, as there ſhall be occaſion; (3) Which ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, at their meeting as aforeſaid, ſhall have full power and authority to order and direct the making of any new Vaults or Sewers, or to cut into any Drein or Sewer already made, or the altering, enlarging, amending, clenſing or ſcowring, of any old Vaults, Sinks, or common Sewers, or for the making, amending or altering of any new or old Pavements, or taking away of croſs Gutters or Channels, in all or any of the Streets and places aforeſaid, (4) and for the removing of all kinds of Nuſances, or any Encroachment by Sheds, Stalls, Bulks, Stoops, Poſts or Wall, beyond the old Foundations into the Streets, in ſuch places which ſhall be adjudged inconvenient, and to hinder the paſſage; Provided, that ſuch Encroachments, as are aforementioned, which are Nuſances, that have continued above thirty years laſt paſt, ſhall not be removed until reaſonable ſatisfaction ſhall be given by the ſaid Commiſſioners, to the party or parties that ſhall ſuffer thereby: (5) And if any perſon or perſons that own the ſaid Encroachments, or ſhall not accept of ſuch reaſonable ſatisfaction as ſhall be tendred or offered by the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed for the Streets, for the pulling down or removing ſuch Nuſances or Encroachments as have been continued before the time aforeſaid; That then, and in ſuch caſes of refuſal, the Barons of the Exchequer, upon a Petition preferred to them by the party grieved, ſhall have power, and are required by this Act, to adjudge what ſatisfaction ſhall be fit for the ſaid perſon or perſons to receive for the removing or pulling down any ſuch Nuſances or Encroachments.

An Act for the Uniformity of Publick Prayers, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies: And for eſtabliſhing the Form of Making, Ordaining and Conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons in the Church of England.

WHereas in the firſt year of the late Queen Elizabeth, there was one Uniform Order of Common Service and Prayer, and of the Adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England, (agreeable to the Word of God, and uſage of the Primitive Church) compiled by the Reverend Biſhops and Clergy, ſet forth in one Book entituled, The Book of Common Prayer, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, and enjoyned to be uſed by Act of Parliament, holden in the ſaid firſt year of the ſaid late Queen, entituled, An Act for Uniformity of Common Prayer, and Service in the Church, and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, very comfortable to all good people deſirous to live in Chriſtian converſation, and moſt profitable to the Eſtate of this Realm, upon the which the Mercy, Favour and Bleſſing of Almighty God is in no wiſe ſo readily and plentifully poured, as by Common Prayers, due uſing of the Sacraments, and often Preaching of the Goſpel, with Devotion of the Hearers: (2) And yet this notwithſtanding, a great number of people in divers parts of this Realm, following their own ſenſuality, and living without knowledge, and due fear of God, do wilfully and Schiſmatically abſtain and refuſe to come to their Pariſh-Churches, and other publick places where Common Prayer, Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and Preaching of the Word of God is uſed upon the Sundays, and other days ordained and appointed to be kept and obſerved as Holy-days: (3) And whereas by the great and ſcandalous neglect of Miniſters in uſing the ſaid Order or Liturgy ſo ſet forth and enjoyned, as aforeſaid, great miſchiefs and inconveniencies, during the time of the late unhappy Troubles, have ariſen and grown, and many people have been led into Factions and Schiſms, to the great decay and ſcandal of the Reformed Religion of the Church of England, and to the hazard of many Souls: (4) For prevention whereof in time to come, for ſetling the peace of the Church, and for allaying the preſent diſtempers which the indiſpoſition of the time hath contracted, The Kings Majeſty (according to his Declaration of the Five and twentieth of October, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, granted his Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, to ſeveral Biſhops, and other Divines, to review the Book of Common Prayer, and to prepare ſuch Alterations and Additions as they thought fit to offer; And afterwards the Convocations of both the Provinces of Canterbury and York, being by his Majeſty called and aſſembled, (and now ſitting) his Majeſty hath been pleaſed to authorize and require the Preſidents of the ſaid Convocation, and other the Biſhops and Clergy of the ſame, to review the ſaid Book of Common Prayer, and the Book of the Form and manner of the making and Conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons; And that after mature conſideration, they ſhould make ſuch Additions and Alterations in the ſaid Books reſpectively, as to them ſhould ſeem meet and convenient; And ſhould exhibit and preſent the ſame to his Majeſty in Writing for his further allowance or confirmation, (5) ſince which time, upon full and mature deliberation, they the ſaid Preſidents, Biſhops and Clergy of both Provinces, have accordingly reviewed the ſaid Books, and have made ſome Alterations which they think fit to be inſerted to the ſame; and ſome Additional Prayers to the ſaid Book of Common Prayer, to be uſed upon proper and emergent occaſions; And have exhibited and preſented the ſame unto his Majeſty in Writing, in one Book entituled, The Book of Common Prayer, and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the uſe of the Church of England, together with the Pſalter or Pſalms of David, Pointed as they are to be ſung or ſaid in Churches; and the Form and Manner of making, Ordaining and Conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons: (6) All which his Majeſty having duly conſidered, hath fully approved and allowed the the ſame, and recommended to this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Books of Common Prayer, and of the Form of Ordination and Conſecration of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons, with the Alterations and Additions which have been ſo made and preſented to his Majeſty by the ſaid Convocations, be the Book which ſhall be appointed to be uſed by all that Officiate in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Chappels, and in all Chappels of Colledges and Halls in both the Univerſities, and the Colledges of Eaton and Wincheſter, and in all Pariſh-Churches and Chappels, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and by all that make or Conſecrate Biſhops, Prieſts or Deacons, in any of the ſaid places, under ſuch ſanctions and penalties as the Houſes of Parliament ſhall think fit.

For avoiding practices between Owners of Goods and Informers, to avoid payment of Cuſtoms. None to ſeize any Goods but Officers of the Cuſtoms.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in every Action, Suit, Indictment, Information or Proſecution, wherein or whereby the perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing his Cuſtoms, or the Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, or any Officer or Officers, perſon or perſons authorized by his Majeſty to put in execution the Act of Parliament, For encreaſing and encouraging of Navigation, their Deputies or Servants, or any others acting in aid of them, have been, are, or ſhall be ſued, indicted, proſecuted or moleſted, it ſhall be lawful for all and every the ſaid perſons, their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, to plead the general Iſſue, and to give this or the aforeſaid Acts of Parliament relating to the Cuſtoms and Navigation, in Evidence, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Juſtice, or other Courts where the ſaid matter ſhall be depending; And the Judges of the ſaid Courts are hereby ſtrictly enjoyned and required to admit the ſame, and to acquit and indempnifie them, and every of them, of, and from all ſuch Suits, Indictments, Informations or Proſecutions, for or concerning any matter or thing acted or done in the due and neceſſary performance and execution of their reſpective Truſts and Employments therein.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for preventing the neceſſary Charge of Sheriffs, and for eaſe in paſſing their Accompts.

Whereas the Office of Sheriff as well by reaſon of the great and unneceſſary Charges in the time of Aſſiſes, and other publick meetings, as by the tedious attendence and charge of Sheriffs in paſſing of their Accompts in the Exchequer, hath of late years been very burthenſome to the Gentry of this your Realm, who in the late times of Tyranny and Oppreſſion have been great Sufferers, and thereby much impoveriſhed in their Eſtates and Fortunes; For remedy wherein, your Majeſties moſt Loyal Subjects, the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes aſſembled in Parliament, do moſt humbly beſeech your moſt excellent Majeſty, that it may be declared and enacted, (2) and be it declared and enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons being duly ſworn into the Office of Sheriff for any County or Shire within this your Majeſties Realm, ſhall from and after the firſt day of February next enſuing, in the time of the Aſſiſes held for the ſaid County or Shire during his or their Sheriffalty, keep or maintain, or cauſe to be kept or maintained one or more Table or Tables, for receipt or entertainment of any perſon or perſons reſorting to the ſaid Aſſiſes, other than thoſe that ſhall be of his own Family or Retinue; (3) nor ſhall make, or ſend in any Preſent to any Judge or Judges of Aſſiſe for his or their Proviſion, nor give any Gratuity to his or their Officers or Servants, or any of them; (4) And alſo that no Sheriff ſhall and after the ſaid firſt day of February, have more then forty Men-ſervants with Liveries attending upon him in the time of the ſaid Aſſiſes, nor under the number of twenty Men-ſervants in any County whatſoever within the Kingdom of England, nor under the number of twelve Men-ſervants in any County within the Dominion of Wales, (5) and upon pain that every Sheriff offending in any of the premiſſes contrary to the true meaning hereof, ſhall forfeit for every default the ſum of two hundred pounds.

Sheriffs at the Aſſiſes may keep no tables for others then of their own Family and Retinue.

Nor make no preſent or gift to any Judge of Aſſiſe.

The number of Servants with Liveries in England. Wales.

Penalty of 200 l.

II. Provided that nothing before in this Act contained ſhall in any wiſe extend unto, or any ways concern the Sheriffs of the City of London and Middleſex, and the Sheriff of Weſtmerland, or either of them, or any of the Sheriffs of or belonging to any City and County, or Town and County within this Realm; but that the ſame Sheriff or Sheriffs ſhall or may do as heretofore hath been uſed or accuſtomed within the ſaid County of Middleſex, and Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and ſuch other Cities and Counties, or Towns and Counties aforeſaid; Any thing herein before contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

How Sheriffs ſhall be eaſed in paſſing their Accounts in the Exchequer.

III. And to the end that Sheriffs may for the time future be eaſed of the great charge and trouble which they heretofore have been put to in paſſing their Accounts in the Exchequer, occaſioned partly in regard that divers ſums of money have ſtood charged upon them in groſs, without expreſſing from what perſons, for what cauſe, or out of what lands or tenements the ſame are to be particularly levied, or out of what particulars the ſaid ſums in groſs do ariſe (whereby it cometh to paſs that the ſaid Sheriffs do ſtill ſtand charged in groſs with divers ſums of money, which were heretofore payable by Abbots, Priors, perſons attainted, and ſuch other perſons, whoſe Eſtates have ſince come to the Crown, or are otherwiſe diſcharged or illeviable) and partly by the Account of Seizures or Foreign Account, and by the exaction of undue Fees of Sheriffs upon their appoſal concerning the ſame:

Seizures of lands remaining charged Michaelmas, 1660.

Seizure hereafter taken or returned.

Fees to the Remembrancers.

Sheriffs ſhall not anſwer illeviable Seizures, Farm, Rents, &c.

IV. For the preventing whereof, and for the future eaſe of Sheriffs in paſſing their Accounts, be it it enacted and declared, That from henceforth every Seizure for or concerning any lands, tenements and hereditaments now remaining charged in the Foreign Account of any Sheriff or Sheriffs within the Kingdom of England for the year ended at Michaelmas, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, ſhall be from the ſaid Foreign Account charged particularly in the great Roll of the Exchequer; (2) and that the ſeveral Remembrancers of the ſaid Court, or their reſpective Duputies, do in their reſpective Offices forthwith, and ſo from time to time for the future, write and make true and perfect Copies of all and every ſuch other Seizure and Inquiſition as already are, or hereafter ſhall be certified into their reſpective Offices, without certifying the Copy of the Writ, or Commiſſion at large upon which ſuch Seizure or Inquiſition is, or ſhall be ſo taken and returned, mentioning only in brief the Date of the ſaid Writ or Commiſſion, and ſhall deliver the ſaid Copies well and truly examined and atteſted under his or their Hands, to the Engroſſer of the ſaid great Roll; (3) and that all ſuch of the ſaid Seizures and Inquiſitions as now are returned into any of their reſpective Offices ſhall be delivered before the firſt day of February next coming: And that all ſuch other Seizures as ſhall hereafter be returned, or certified into their reſpective Offices, ſhall be delivered ſo examined and atteſted as aforeſaid, to the ſaid Engroſſer before the firſt day of the next Term after the ſaid Remembrancers ſhall have received the ſame, ſo as the ſame may be charged in the great Roll, to the end that the Proceſs of the Court may from thence iſſue for levying the Iſſues and Profits thereof to the uſe of the Crown, (4) unto which ſaid Remembrancers, or their Deputies, ſhall be from time to time paid for every Sheet which they, or their reſpective Clerks ſhall ſo write and deliver, the ſum of eight pence, the ſame to be paid unto them by the aforeſaid reſpective Sheriffs, who ſhall be allowed the ſame by the Barons upon their reſpective Accounts, out of the Iſſues and Profits ariſing out of the Premiſſes ſo ſeized; (5) and no Sheriff or Sheriffs for this preſent year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, nor any Sheriff or Sheriffs to be hereafter made or appointed within this Kingdom of England, ſhall be charged in Account to anſwer any illeviable Seizure, Farm, Rent or Debt, or other Seizure, Farm, Rent, Debt, matter or thing whatſoever, which was not writ in Proceſs to him or them to be levied, wherein the perſons of whom, or the lands or tenements out of which, together with the cauſe for which the ſame ſhall be ſo levied, ſhall be plainly and particularly expreſſed, but ſhall be thereof wholly diſcharged without Petition, Plea, or other trouble or charge whatſoever.

Seizures before 1 Jac and divers others, to be left out of the Sheriffs Account.

V. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That all Seizures heretofore made before the firſt year of the Reign of the late King James of ever bleſſed memory, now remaining in the Accounts of the Sheriffs, and all Seizures and Debts which are pardoned, ſhall be, and are hereby fully diſcharged; and that the ſame and every of them ſhall hereafter be left out of Sheriffs Accounts without further Order, Plea, Petition or other Charge to any Sheriff or Sheriffs whatſoever; (2) and that no Proceſs ſhall from henceforth be written forth to any Sheriff for the levying of the ſame, or any of them, nor for any other Rent or Farm, which cannot be explained by ſetting forth the particulars thereof, or which have been unanſwered by the ſpace of forty years laſt paſt; (3) and that all other dead Farms and Seizures, and all deſperate, illeviable, and unintelligible Debts ſhall be removed out of the Annual Roll, and Sheriffs Charge, into the Exannual Roll, there to remain, until by Commiſſion they ſhall be revived and made anſwerable.

Proceſs for Debts to be ſent forth in convenient time.

The penalty upon Officers for doing any thing againſt this Act.

VI. And to the end, that all new Debts ariſing and coming into the Exchequer for the future may be ſent forth in Proceſs within convenient time, be it alſo enacted and declared, That the aforeſaid ſeveral Remembrancers do forthwith inrol and certifie to the ſaid Ingroſſer of the great Roll, all ſuch Debts as any Sheriff or Sheriffs of this Realm are, or hereafter ſhall be charged withall, either by vertue of their reſpective Retorns made to the Barons of the ſaid Exchequer upon his Majeſties Writs of Fieri facias, Levari facias, Capias, or other Proceſs; (2) & alſo of all Fines and Amerciaments which are or ſhall be ſet and impoſed by the Court of Exchequer, upon any Sheriff or Sheriffs for his or their contempts or neglects; (that is to ſay) That all and every ſuch Debts, Fines & Amerciaments as now are returned, ſet or impoſed in any of the ſaid Offices, ſhall be delivered as aforeſaid, before the firſt day of February next enſuing: (3) And all ſuch Debts, Fines and Amerciaments as ſhall hereafter be returned, ſet or impoſed in any of the reſpective Offices, ſhall be alſo delivered by the firſt day of the next Term after ſuch Retorns made, or ſuch Fines and Amerciaments ſo ſet or impoſed, (4) that ſo they may be all charged in the Sheriffs Accounts reſpectively, and comprehend within his or their Quietus eſt, (5) upon pain that every Officer or Officers in the ſaid Exchequer, who ſhall in any thing offend contrary to this preſent Act, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Forty pounds for every ſuch offence, whereof one moiety ſhall be to the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moiety to the party or parties who ſhall be thereby agrieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Priviledge or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for preventing of Theſt and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England.

Whereas a great number of lewd, diſorderly, and lawleſs perſons, being Thieves and Robbers, who are commonly called Moſs-Troopers, have ſucceſſively for many and ſundry years laſt paſt, been bred, reſided in, & frequented the Borders of the two reſpective Counties of Northumberland and Cumberland, and the next adjacent parts of Scotland, and they taking the opportunity of the large waſte Grounds, Heaths and Moſſes, and the many intricate and dangerous ways and by-paths in thoſe parts, do uſually, after the moſt notorious Crimes committed by them, eſcape over from the one Kingdom into the other reſpectively, and ſo avoid the hand of Juſtice, in regard the offences done and perpetrated in the one Kingdom, cannot be puniſhed in the other.

II. And whereas ſince the time of the late unhapppy diſtractions, ſuch Offences and Offenders as aforeſaid, have exceedingly more increaſed & abounded, and the ſeveral Inhabitants of the ſaid reſpective Counties have been for divers years laſt paſt neceſſitated at their own free and voluntary charge, to maintain ſeveral Parties of Horſe for the neceſſary defence of their perſons, families and goods, and to the end the aforeſaid evil and pernicious members might be apprehended and brought to judgment; (2) And whereas the moſt part of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Counties being more remote from the Borders then other parts, and conſequently not ſo much expoſed to imminent dangers as others, are therefore unwilling to contribute their proportionable parts of the aforeſaid Charge, & yet notwithſtanding it cannot probably or poſſibly be avoided, but that thoſe Inhabitants of the reſpective Counties who hold themſelves moſt ſecure, muſt certainly ſuſtain much damage and detriment in their Goods and Eſtates, in caſe the aforeſaid Moſs-Troopers be not timely ſuppreſſed, but ſuffered to grow numerous, ſtrong and potent, which they muſt needs do in caſe there be no reſtraint upon them; (3) Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by & with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, & by authority thereof, That from and after the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, for and during the term of Five years next enſuing the date of this preſent Act, it ſhall & may be lawful for the reſpective Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid reſpective Counties, or the major part of them, at any General Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid Counties reſpectively on the behalf of the ſaid Counties or either of them, from time to time as they ſhall ſee occaſion, to make an Order in open Court of Seſſions for charging, according to their ſeveral proportions, all, and every the ſeveral Inhabitants of the ſaid reſpective Counties, for the ſafeguard and ſecuring of the ſaid ſeveral Counties and Inhabitants thereof, from all injury, violence, ſpoil and rapine of the Moſs-Troopers aforeſaid.

III. Provided, That the ſaid County of Northumberland be not by force of this Act at any time charged above the ſum of Five hundred pounds in the year; nor the ſaid County of Cumberland charged above the ſum of Two hundred pounds in the year: (2) And for this end and purpoſe, the ſaid ſeveral Juſtices of Peace of the reſpective Counties aforeſaid, are hereby impowred and authorized at the General Quarter Seſſions aforeſaid, to appoint and imploy from time to time, if occaſion require, any perſon or perſons to have the Conduct and Command of a certain number of men not exceeding the number of thirty men in the County of Northumberland, and twelve in the County of Cumberland, whereby the Malefactors aforeſaid may be ſearched out, diſcovered, purſued, apprehended, and brought to trial of the Law: (3) And all and every the ſaid Juſtices of Peace of the reſpective Counties aforeſaid, or the major part of them, at any General Seſſion of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid Counties, or either of them reſpectively, are hereby further impowred and authorized by force of this preſent Act, to make, and iſſue forth their reſpective Warrants under their Hands for the levying & collecting any ſum or ſums of Money ordered to be paid for and towards the ſafeguard and ſecuring of the ſaid Counties reſpectively as aforeſaid, and to give full power to the ſeveral Conſtables and other Officers, to raiſe, levy and collect the ſaid Money, and all and every the Inhabitants of the ſaid ſeveral Counties, according to their reſpective proportionable Eſtates in Lands or Goods, by diſtreſs and ſale of Goods, rendring the overplus, if there be any, to the reſpective Owner or Owners: (4) And the ſaid Juſtices of Peace in the ſaid ſeveral Counties, or any one of them reſpectively, are hereby alſo authorized to examine any complaint made againſt the Collectors and Conſtables, or any other Officers or Miniſters of Juſtice whatſoever, or any of them, or any other refractory perſon or perſons whatſoever, that at any time hereafter ſhall refuſe, neglect or fail to give obedience to this Act, or ſhall do any act or acts in diſturbance or obſtruction thereof, and to bind over ſuch perſon or perſons to the next Quarter Seſſions, according to the known Laws of the Land, to the end ſuch perſon or perſons may be proceeded withall according to Juſtice.

IV. And the ſaid reſpective Juſtices of Peace as aforeſaid, are hereby further impowred and authorized on behalf of the ſaid ſeveral Counties reſpectively, to appoint a Treaſurer to receive from the ſaid Collectors the Moneys by them collected, and to pay over the ſame according to the Orders they ſhall receive from the ſaid Juſtices at the General Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid reſpective Counties: (2) and the ſaid Juſtices are alſo impowred to agree and article with ſuch perſon or perſons yearly, as they ſhall think fit to imploy in the ſaid Service, and to take ſufficient ſecurity of them for the faithful and moſt effectual performance thereof, for the beſt ſafeguard, advantage and benefit of the people, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

V. And in caſe any perſon or perſons ſhall in purſuance of this Act be imployed in the Border-Service, and ſhall at any time hereafter wilfully and corruptly, or for any ſiniſter reſpect whatſoever, neglect or forbear to diſcover or apprehend, or to bring to Trial any of the ſaid perſons called Moſs-Troopers as aforeſaid, and ſhall be convicted thereof according to Law, he or they ſhall from thenceforth be diſabled, and made uncapable for ever to manage or take upon him or them the ſaid Imployment, and to ſuffer ſuch Fine and Impriſonment, according to the quality of his or their offence, as the Juſtices of Peace at their General Seſſions ſhall think fit to inflict.

VI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it hereby declared, That it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of Peace of either of the ſaid Counties as aforeſaid reſpectively, at any time hereafter, to moderate or leſſen the ſaid Charge, if they ſee cauſe.

VII. Provided, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for five years and no longer.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for better ſuppreſſion and puniſhment of the ſaid Moſs-Troopers flying out of England into Scotland, or out of Scotland into England, the Statutes made in the ſeveral Seſſions of Parliament, in the Fourth and Seventh years of King James, and ſhall be revived and put in execution according to their true intent. 18 Car. 2. cap. 3. CAP. XXIII.

An Additional Act concerning matter of Aſſurance uſed amongſt Merchants.

43 E. cap. 12.

Encouragements of Merchants and Trade.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Three and fortieth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth of happy memory, entituled, An Act concerning matters of Aſſurances uſed amongſt Merchants; The Parliament then taking into conſideration, by all good means to comfort and encourage the Merchants of this Kingdom, thereby to advance and encreaſe the Wealth of this Realm, her Majeſties Cuſtoms, and the ſtrength of Shipping, and for preventing of divers miſchiefs in the ſaid Act mentioned; It was enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful for the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, to award forth under the Great Seal of England, one general or ſtanding Commiſſion to be renewed yearly at the leaſt, and otherwiſe ſo often as unto the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper ſhould ſeem meet, for the hearing and determining of Cauſes ariſing on Policies of Aſſurance, ſuch as then were, or then after ſhould be entred within the Office of Aſſurance of the City of London; (2) which Commiſſions ſhould be directed to the Judge of the Admiralty for the time being, the Recorder of London for the time being, two Doctors of the Civil Law, two Common Lawyers, and eight grave or diſcreet Merchants, or any five of them; (3) which Commiſſioners, or the greater part of them which ſhould ſit and meet, ſhould have full power and authority to hear, examine, order and decree all and every ſuch cauſe and cauſes, in a brief and ſummary courſe without formalities of pleadings or proceedings, with power to warn Parties to come before them, and to examine upon Oath any Witneſſes that ſhould be produced, and to commit to priſon any perſon that ſhould wilfully diſobey their final Orders and Decrees; (4) and the Commiſſioners to ſit once weekly upon the Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, with a liberty in the ſaid Act for any perſon grieved by any ſuch Sentence or Decree, to exhibit his Bill in Chancery for the re-examination of ſuch Sentence or Decree, as by the ſaid Act, relation being thereunto had, more at large may appear: (5) But foraſmuch as by the ſaid recited Act, without five Commiſſioners there cannot be a Court, and without there be a Court, they cannot proceed in the execution of their Commiſſion, ſo much as to ſummon Parties or Witneſſes to appear; and in caſe of neglect or refuſal of any Party or Witneſs to appear, they have no power to puniſh the delay or contempt with Coſts, or otherwiſe; (6) and it is provided by the ſaid Act, That not any Commiſſioner, other then the Judge of the Admiralty, or the Recorder of London, ſhall proceed in the execution of ſuch Commiſſion, before he hath taken his Oath before the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party, which upon the renewing of the ſaid Commiſſion, often proves a great delay, there being ſo many Commiſſioners to be ſworn, and the Court of Aldermen not ſitting at ſometimes of the year, when the ſaid Commiſſioners have happened to be renewed; (7) and although the ſaid Commiſſioners upon their final Sentence have power to commit to priſon any perſon that ſhall wilfully diſobey their ſaid Sentences or Decrees, yet they have no power to make any Order againſt the Ship or Goods, which commonly are the things aſſured, (8) by which Omiſſions, for want of power given by the ſaid Act, the benefits intended by the ſaid Act of Parliament are much retarded, and the miſchiefs by the Act endeavoured to be prevented, much increaſed:

II. For remedy whereof, Be it enacted and ordained, and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That from and after the four and twentieth day of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, to Iſſue out yearly (or oftner if need require) one ſtanding Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, thereby impowring & authorizing the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three of them (whereof a Doctor of the Civil Law, or a Bariſter at Law of five years ſtanding at the leaſt, to be always one) to meet and ſit, and make a Court, and proceed in all things in the execution of the ſaid Commiſſion as before the ſaid Act any five might have done; (2) and that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them as aforeſaid, be and hereby are impowred to ſummon Parties and Witneſſes to appear, and in caſe of contempt or wilful delay in the Witneſſes upon the firſt Summons and tender of reaſonable Charges, and in the Parties upon their ſecond Summons, to puniſh the Offendors by Impriſonment or Coſts for ſuch time, and in ſuch manner as ſhall be reaſonable, and according to the nature and quality of their Offences; (3) and that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every ſuch Commiſſioner, to proceed in the execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, having firſt taken an Oath before the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the time being only, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party; and the ſaid Lord Mayor is hereby authorized to give ſuch Oath; Any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: (4) And that no perſon ſhall proceed in Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, before he be firſt Sworn before the Lord Mayor of London for the time being, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party, as formerly he ſhould have been before the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen.

Three Commiſſioners impowred to act.

Coſts.

Lord Mayor of London may adminiſter the Oath.

III. Be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them as aforeſaid, ſhall find cauſe to examine Witneſſes beyond the Seas, or any remote parts of his Majeſties Dominions, for the clearing of any doubt or matter before them depending, that in ſuch caſe by direction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them, like Commiſſions or Proceſs ſhall iſſue out of the Court of Admiralty, as have formerly been for the purpoſes aforeſaid, returnable before the ſaid Commiſſioners; (2) and that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them, ſhall have alſo power to give and paſs their final Sentence, Decree and Executions, as well againſt the body of the party evicted, or his goods, as alſo againſt the executors and adminiſtrators of ſuch party evicted; and to aſſeſs Coſts of Suits upon ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be condemned by the Decree of the ſaid Court, as to them ſhall ſeem juſt.

Commiſſions out of the Admiralty Court to examine Witneſſes beyond Seas.

Witneſſes going to Sea, how to be examined before.

IV. And foraſmuch as many Witneſſes (as Sea-men & others) come and ſpeedily go again to Sea, before a Court can be ſummoned, by which means the Aſſured and Aſſurers are many times much damnified; (2) For the preventing of which miſchief, be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any one of the ſaid Commiſſioners to Adminiſter an Oath to any Witneſs legally ſummoned to give teſtimony, (timely notice being thereof given to the adverſe party, and ſet up in the Office before ſuch examination) to the end ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes may be croſs-examined.

Appeal to the Chancery.

V. Provided always, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall in no wiſe proceed both againſt perſons and goods, for one and the ſame Debt; (2) And provided alſo, That any thing in this Act contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to prejudice the Appeal to the High Court of Chancery given or allowed in the ſaid former Act of Parliament.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act Declaratory concerning Bankrupts.

Whereas divers Noblemen, Gentlemen and perſons of Quality, no ways bred up to Trade or Merchandize, do oftentimes put in great ſtocks of Money into the Eaſt-India Company, or Guiney Company, and the Fiſhing Trade, and ſuch other publick Societies, and receive the procede of thoſe Stocks ſometimes in ready Moneys, ſometimes in Commodities whch they uſually ſell for Money, or exchange again, by which means the Trade of thoſe Companies much incouraged, Fiſhing and Navigation increaſed, and the publick good of thoſe Companies is much advanced.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for reſtoring of all ſuch Advowſons, Rectories, Impropriate Glebe-lands and Tithes, to his Majeſties Loyal Subjects, as were taken from them, and making void certain charges impoſed on them upon their Compoſitions for Delinquency, by the late Uſurped Power,

Whereas many Loyal Subjects of our late Sovereign Lord King CHARLES the Firſt, and of the Kings Majeſty that now is, were upon pretence of Delinquency for adhering unto, and faithfully ſerving their ſaid Majeſties according to their Duty and Allegiance, enforced and conſtrained by the pretended Power of the Long Parliament, liament not onely to part with great ſums of money in ſatisfaction of the ſaid ſuppoſed Delinquency, but likewiſe to ſetle all, or part of ſuch Advowſons, Rectories, Glebe-lands and Tythes, Eſtates and Terms, as they, or any in truſt for them, were then ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of, and to make Grants and Aſſurances of Rents and Annuities to and upon ſuch Truſtees as were appointed by the ſaid Long Parliament, as well for the augmentation of certain Vicarages, as for the uſe and maintenance of Preaching Miniſters and Lecturers, without any valuable conſideration given for the ſame, other then ſome abatement of thoſe exceſſive Fines impoſed on them for their pretended Delinquency, and exacted from them by thoſe Arbitray Powers, to the impoveriſhing and undoing of many of the Kings moſt Loyal Subjects; (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice aud conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all Grants, Feoffments, Bargains and Sales, Releaſes, Confirmations, and other Conveyances and Aſſurances in the Law, of any higher or lower nature whatſoever, had or made by any ſuch pretended Delinquents, their heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, or by any perſon having any Eſtate or Intereſt in Law or Equity in Truſt for them, or by any other perſon or perſons having any Eſtate or Intereſt joyntly, or in common with them, or in Reverſion or Remainder after them, to any perſon or perſons, bodies politick or corporate, of any ſuch Advowſons, Rectories Impropriate, Glebe-lands, Tythes, Eſtates, Terms, Annuities and Rents as aforeſaid, to or for the uſes aforeſaid, as part or in full of their Compoſitions for ſuch pretended Delinquency as aforeſaid, and all Securities touching or concerning the ſame onely, be and are hereby adjudged from henceforth null and void in Law to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever; Saving to all perſons other then the ſaid Truſtees and their Heirs, and all claiming under them, all right to the ſaid Rectories and Premiſſes as hath accrued unto them before the nineteenth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two.

All Eſtates made by pretended Delinquents of Advowſons, Rectories &c. for Compoſitions, made void.

Saving other Rights.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Tenants, Leſſees and Occupiers of all ſuch Advowſons, Rectories Impropriate, Glebe-lands, Tythes, and Premiſſes ſo granted or ſetled, to or upon ſuch Truſtees as aforeſaid, for the uſes or purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall pay all ſuch Rents as ſhall hereafter grow due and payable to ſuch perſons onely unto whom the Right and Intereſt of and in the ſame Advowſons, Rectories, Glebe-lands, Tythes and Premiſſes before the ſaid Conveyances or Aſſurances (intended to be annulled and made void by this preſent Act) did or ſhould of right belong or appertain.

How Tenants and Leſſees under ſuch Eſtates ſhall pay their Rents.

III. And whereas the ſaid Conveyances and Aſſurances in and by this Act intended to be made void, were ſome of them of Eſtates in Fee-ſimple, and ſome of them long Terms for years made to Truſtees, who Re-demiſed the ſame at and under ſuch yearly Rents and ſums of Money as were then appointed to be the Augmentation of certain Vicarages, or maintenance for Preaching Miniſters, ſince which time, many of the Rectories and Lands ſo conveyed and leaſed have been abſolutely ſold, and the Re-dimiſes thereof granted and aſſigned by the Owners thereof, for the benefit of ſuch purchaſers, (2) Be it further enacted and ordained by this preſent Parliament, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Purchaſers, their heirs and aſſigns, ſhall pay and the ſaid former Owners of the ſaid Lands and Rectories, their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, ſhall have, hold and enjoy the ſaid Rents and Sums of Money ſo reſerved (for the Augmentation of the ſaid Vicarages, and maintenance for Preaching Miniſters) upon the ſaid ſeveral Re-demiſes, and ſhall have the ſame, and the like remedies by Diſtreſs, or by Action of Debt, for the recovery thereof as the ſaid Truſtees who Re-dimiſed the ſame, ſhould or might have had, if this Act had not been made.

Rents and ſums appointed for augmentation of certain Vicarages.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for reforming of the Abuſes committed in the Weight and falſe Packing, of Butter.

FOrasmuch as Butter is one of the principal Commodities of the product of this Kingdom, and is not onely of an univerſal uſe and expence at home, but very great quantities thereof are tranſported beyond the Seas; (2) And whereas, by Cuſtom time out of mind uſed, every Kilderkin of Butter ought to weigh One hundred thirty and two pounds groſs at the leaſt; that is to ſay, One hundred and twelve pounds of Neat Butter, and the Caſk Twenty pounds: (3) The Firkin of Butter ought to weigh Sixty and four pounds, viz. Fifty and ſix pounds of good and Merchantable Butter Neat, and the Caſk eight pounds; (4) and the Pot of Butter ought to weigh twenty pounds, viz. Fourteen pounds of good and Merchantable Butter Neat, and the Pot ſix pounds: (5) And whereas great complaint hath been made by the Traders in Butter and Cheeſe, That by the fraudulent dealing and practice of ſeveral Farmers, Owners and Packers of Butter, and by their irregular manner of weighing with Stones, Iron-Wedges, Bricks, and other unwarrantable Weights, the ſame quantities of Butter are not put up into the reſpective Caſk and Pots aforeſaid, & the Kilderkin is commonly made to weigh ſix and twenty pounds, and ſometime eight and twenty pounds, and the Firkin to weigh ten pounds or twelve pounds, and ſometimes thirteen or fourteen pounds weight, and the Pots are made generally to weigh ſeven pounds, and ſome of them eight pounds or nine pounds weight, (6) and much bad and decayed Butter is mixed, and packed up into Kilderkins, Firkins, and other Caſk and Pots, with ſound and good Butter, and immoderate quantities of Salt intermixed to the ſpoil of the ſame, and to the great wrong and abuſe of his Majeſty in the victualling of his Navy, of Merchants in the victualing of their Ships, and of all Traders in the ſaid Commodity, and of all Howſholders who bye the ſame for their expence, and to the great diſhonour of the English Nation, in the parts beyond the Seas, and to the bringing of the ſaid Commodity into great diſrepute abroad, whereby it yields not that price, nor is vented there in ſuch quantities as otherwiſe it ſhould.

Farmers and other ſellers ſhall ſet their marks of the weight upon good and ſufficient Casks. And their names.

V. And for the better diſcovery of all frauds and abuſes which ſhall be committed againſt this Act, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Farmer and other perſon and perſons packing up Butter in Kilderkins, Firkins, or any other Cask whatſoever, for ſale, do from and after the ſaid firſt day of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, pack up his Butter into good and ſufficient Cask, made of ſound, dry, and well ſeaſoned Timber, and ſhall ſet upon every Firkin and Cask whatſoever, when the ſame is throughly and fully ſeaſoned in water, a continuing viſible Mark of the juſt weight of the empty Cask, and do likewiſe ſet upon every Kilderkin, Firkin and Cask when the ſame is filled with Butter, the firſt Letter of his or their Chriſtian Name, and his or their Sirname at length, with an Iron brand, (2) upon pain and penalty that every Farmer, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever offending in not putting on the Mark of ſuch weight of Kilderkin, Firkin or other Cask after ſeaſoning, or not ſetting the firſt Letter of his or their Chriſtian Name, and his or their Sirname at length on every Firkin and Cask as aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſuch offence reſpectively forfeit the ſum of Ten ſhillings for every Hundred weight of Butter, and ſo proportionable for a greater or leſſer quantity that ſhall be in every ſuch Cask.

An Act for the Regulation of Pilchard Fiſhing in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall.

Fiſhery of great concernment to this Nation.

WHereas the pubick Honour, Wealth and ſafety of this Realm, as well in the maintenance of Trade and ſupport of Navigation, as in many others reſpects, doth in an high degree depend upon the improvement and encouragement of the Fiſhery;

Times prohibited to Fiſh in Cornwall and Devon.

Penalty.

II. And foraſmuch as of late years there have divers pernitious diſorders and abuſes, by the licentiouſneſs of the times crept in, and yet continue evidently deſtructive to that Trade; For prevention and redreſs whereof, there is no Law hitherto particularly provided, in the growing evils occaſioned by Driving-nets, and other fraudulent and injurious practices to the extream damage of the Fiſhery: (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no perſon or perſons ſhall in any year from the firſt day of June, till the laſt of November, preſume to take Fiſh in the High Sea, or in any Bay, Port, Creek or Coaſt of or belonging to Cornwall, or Devon with any Drift-net, Trammell or Stream-net or Nets, or any other Nets of that ſort or kind, unleſs it be at the diſtance of one Leagne and an half at the leaſt from the reſpective Shores; (3) upon the penalty of forfeiture of the ſaid Nets ſo impoyed, or the full value thereof, and one months impriſonment without bail or mainprize.

Pilchards and Fumathoes to be bought of the Owners and Adventurers in Fiſhing.

III. And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons being neither Owners, Partners or Adventurers in the Craft of Fiſhery, and in the Boates and Saynes thereunto belonging, or ſhall preſume from and after the day before limited, to make or cauſe to be made any Pilchards or Fumathoes in Cask to be ſold or tranſported, except he or they ſhall openly buy the aforeſaid Fiſh of the reſpective Owners, Partners and Adventurers in the ſaid Pilchard Craft, or with their expreſs allowance, leave and conſent, that they ſhall in ſuch caſe forfeit all and ſingular ſuch Pilchards and Fumathoes ſo made, and every Cask thereof, or their full value; the one half to the King, and the other half to him or them that ſhall ſo Sue for the ſame by bill, plaint or other information and upon legal proof recover the ſame.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for the Reverſing of the Earl of Strafford his Attainder.

Treaſon. The reaſons and grounds of Repealing the Attainder.

WHereas Thomas late Earl of Strafford was Impeached of High Treaſon, upon pretence of endeavouring to Subvert the Fundameutal Laws, and called to a publick and ſolemn Arraignment and Trial before the Peers in Parliament, where he made a particular Defence to every Article objected againſt him; (2) inſomuch that the Turbulent party then ſeeing no hopes to effect their unjuſt deſigns by any ordinary way and method of proceedings, did at laſt reſolve to attempt the deſtruction and Attainder of the ſaid Earl by an Act of Parliament, to be therefore purpoſely made to condemn him upon accumulative Treaſon, none of the pretended Crimes being Treaſon apart, and ſo could not be in the whole if they had been proved, as they were not, (3) and alſo judged him guilty of conſtructive Treaſon (that is) of levying War againſt the King, though it was only the commanding an Order of the Council-Board in Ireland, to be executed by a Serjeant at Arms, and three or four Sonldiers, which was the conſtant practice of the Deputies there for a long time; (4) To which end they having firſt preſented a Bill for this intent to the Houſe of Commons and finding there more oppoſition then they expected, they cauſed a multitude of tumultuous perſons to come down to Weſtminſter, Armed with Swords and Staves, and to fill both the Palace-yards, and all the approaches to both Houſes of Parliament with fury and clamour, and to require Juſtice, ſpeedy Juſtice againſt the Earl of Strafford; (5) And having by theſe and other undue practices obtained that Bill to paſs in the Houſe of Commons, they cauſed the names of thoſe reſolute Gentlemen, who in cauſe of innocent bloud had freely diſcharged their conſciences, being nine and fifty, to be poſted up in ſeveral places about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and ſtiled them Straffordians, and enemies to their Country, hoping thereby to deliver them up to the fury of the people, whom they had endeavored to incence againſt them, (6) and then procured the ſaid Bill to be ſent up to the Houſe of Peers, where it having ſometime reſted under great deliberation, at laſt in a time when a great part of the Peers were abſent by reaſon of the tumults, and many of thoſe who were preſent proteſted againſt it, the ſaid Bill paſſed in the Houſe of Peers: (7) And at length his late Majeſty King Charles the firſt of Glorious Memory, granted a Commiſſion for giving his Royal Aſſent thereunto; which nevertheleſs was done by his ſaid Majeſty with exceeding great ſorrow then, and ever remembred by him with nnexpreſſible grief of heart, and out of his Majeſties great Piety he did publickly expreſs it when his own Sacred Life was taken away by the moſt deteſtable Traitors that ever were:

II. For all which cauſes, Be it declared and enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the Act entituled An Act for the Attainder of Thomas Earl of Strafford of High Treaſon, and all and every Clauſe, Article, and thing therein contained, being obtained as aforeſaid, is now hereby repealed, revoked and reverſed.

III. CAP. X.

An Act for continuance of a former Act for Repairing the High-ways within the County of Hertford.

15 Car. 2. cap. 1. Ways.

London, York, Lincolnſhire.

Whereas by a late Act of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Repairing the High-ways within the Counties of Hertford, Cambridge and Huntington, it was Enacted, That for the repairing of the ancient High-way and Poſt-road leading from London to York, and from London into Lincolnſhire, there ſhould be a Toll paid at a certain place in every of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, and for Hertfordſhire at Wades-Mill in the ſaid County; (2) which ſaid Toll ſo ſet, is by the ſaid Act to continue the ſpace of eleven years and no longer, with this proviſion, That if the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter Seſſions in the reſpective Counties, ſhall before the expiration of eleven years, adjudge the ſaid Repairs to be ſufficiently done, that from thenceforth it ſhould ceaſe: (3) And whereas divers Gentlemen within the County of Hertford have heartily ſet themſelves to take care for the repairing of the ſaid Ways within their County; and in order thereunto finding that Money could not be advanced by the Toll in ſo ſpeedy a manner as to repair thoſe ruinous Ways; and that none would lend their Money on that Security, did, upon their own Credits, borrow Thirteen hundred pounds on Intereſt, to effect the Work intended by the ſaid Act; which ſum accordingly is laid out, together with ſuch Money as hath proceeded from the ſaid Toll before mentioned, in the repair of the ſaid High-way, by which means they have ſo amended the ſaid Road lying in that County, leading from London to York, that they have made the ſame from a Road impaſſable, to be to the ſatisfaction of all that travel that way very paſſable and convenient: But by reaſon of the great ſum expended and laid out, ſo borrowed as aforeſaid, the Toll will not be ſufficient to repay the ſame within the years mentioned in the former Act, with Intereſt for the ſame, and to finiſh the ſaid Work:

Hertford, Cambridge, Norfolk, Newmarket, Puckeridge, Barley.

II. And whereas there is a Road in the ſaid County of Hertford that leads from London to Cambridge, and ſo into Norfolk, and likewiſe to Newmarket, and ſo into Suffolk and other parts, which goes out of the forementioned Road at the end of the Town of Puckeridge, and ſo leadeth to Barley in the ſaid County of Hertford, which is very ruinous, and requires as much the help of the Toll in many places, as the forementioned Road did:

The Toll taken at Wades-Mill, continued.

III. May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it be enacted, and be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the Toll aforementioned to be taken at VVades-Mill for the County of Hertford, that by the former Act was to continue for eleven years and no longer, ſhall continue for the ſaid County of Hertford for the ſpace of One and twenty years, and no longer, the ſaid term to commence from the time mentioned in the Act before mentioned, and the Money ariſing therefrom to be employed for the payment of the Debt aforeſaid with Intereſt, and alſo for further repair of the ſaid High-way.

For repairing the High-way from Puckeridge to Barley.

IV. It is further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That the perſons impowred in the forementioned Act for the repair of the High-ways within the County of Hertford, ſhall have the ſame power to repair the ſaid High-ways leading from Puckeridge to Barley in the ſaid County, as they have to repair the High-way in the ſaid County leading from London to York;

And that they ſhall and may apply ſuch part of the Toll thereunto, (having an equal care of both High-ways) as they in their Judgments ſhall find needful; Any thing in the ſaid former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Caxton.

V. And whereas by the former recited Act a Toll was erected and ſet, to be taken at the Town of Caxton in the County of Cambridge, for and towards the repairing the High-ways in the ſaid County, the ſaid Toll doth prove uſeleſs, and will not anſwer the end for which the ſame was intended, by reaſon of the inconveniency of the place where the ſame was ſet:

Arrington Bridge.

VI. Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Toll be, and is hereby removed from the ſaid Town of Caxton unto Arrington Bridge, or the Town of Arrington, as ſhall ſeem moſt convenient by the Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid County at their next Eaſter General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace in the County aforeſaid; (2) and that the ſame Toll ſhall be taken and received at Arrington Bridge, or Arrington Town aforeſaid, according to the Rates, and by the ſame ways and means as in the former Act was appointed and declared, and to be employed to the uſes, purpoſes and intents therein alſo declared; Any thing therein to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A charge of Six pence in the pound for repairing the ſaid High-ways.

VII. Provided always, That all and every perſon and perſons who by Law are chargeable towards the repairing of the ſaid High-ways and places aforeſaid, ſhall ſtill remain ſo chargeable, and pay Six pence in the pound yearly, according to the true value of their Eſtate, for and towards the repair of the ſaid High-ways during the time of the continuance of this Toll; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Collectors of the Toll, how to account weekly.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Collector of this Toll ſhall weekly account to the Receiver-General for the whole money received by vertue of this or the ſaid former Act; (2) and the next Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid County ſhall hereby have power to give an Oath to the ſaid Collectors for the making of a true and perfect account of the money ſo received, which ſaid account ſo made ſhall be returned into the next General Quarter Seſſions to be held for the ſaid County by the Juſtice of Peace before whom ſuch Oath was taken.

Proviſo touching the continuance or determining of the ſaid Toll.

IX. Provided alſo, That if at any time before the expiration of the ſaid term of One and twenty years, the ſaid High-ways ſhall be well and ſufficiently amended and repaired, and ſo adjudged at the publick Quarter Seſſions for the County of Hertford; and that ſuch ſum or ſums of money as is already borrowed and laid out, or ſhall be borrowed and laid out for the uſe aforeſaid, be repaid with Intereſt for the ſame: That from and after ſuch Adjudication made, and repayment of ſuch money ſo borrowed and laid out as aforeſaid, the aforeſaid Toll in the ſaid County ſhall ceaſe and determine.

Proviſo for Adjudication of the amendment of the ſaid High-ways.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the High-ways within the ſaid County of Hertford ſhall be ſufficiently amended, and that the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter Seſſions ſhall fail to make an Adjudication thereof, That then in ſuch default of the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of Aſſize for the ſaid County of Hertford to make ſuch Adjudication, which being entred with the Clerk of the Aſſizes, ſhall be eſteemed a good Adjudication of the amendment of the ſaid High-ways: and that then and from thenceforth, the ſaid Debt being fully ſatisfied to ſuch as ſhall have advanced any moneys thereupon, the ſaid Toll ſhall ceaſe and determine; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

XI. And whereas in this preſent Act it is provided, That all and every perſon and perſons who by Law are chargeable towards the repairing of the ſaid High-ways and places aforeſaid, ſhall ſtill remain ſo chargeable, and pay Six pence in the pound yearly, according to the true value of their Eſtates, for and towards the repair of the ſaid High-ways, during the time of the continuance of the ſaid Toll:

How the ſaid Six pence in the pound ſhall be paid and levied.

XII. Be it therefore provided and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid ſum of Six pence in the pound ſhall be paid unto the Treaſurer appointed to receive the aforeſaid Toll, in like manner as the ſaid Toll is appointed to be paid by the aforeſaid Act: (2) And for default of payment of the ſaid Rate of Six pence in the pound, in manner as aforeſaid, by the ſpace of ſix days after demand made, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Surveyors of the High-ways for the time being, and they are hereby impowred to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of the party refuſing to pay the ſame accordingly, reſtoring the overplus (if any be) to the Owner.

CAP. XI.

An Act for Draining of the Fen called Deeping-Fen, and other Fens therein mentioned.

Deeping, Pinchbeck, Thurlby, Bourn, and Croyland Fens.

Whereas at a Seſſion of Sewers holden at Bourn in the County of Lincoln, the twentieth day of Auguſt, in the one and fourtieth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, for the recovery and Draining of certain Fens in Holland and Keſteven in the County of Lincoln, called or known by the names of Deeping-Fen, Pinchbeck and Spalding, South-Fen, Thurlby-Fen, Bourn South-Fen, and Croyland-Fen, alias Goggushland; It was by the Commiſſioners then and there aſſembled, Ordered and Decreed, That the ſum of Twelve thouſand pounds ſhould be levied and gathered upon the Lords and Inhabitants of certain Towns in Keſteven and Holland, Commoners in the ſaid Fens, for Draining the ſame, and ſhould be paid in to certain perſons therein nominated to receive the ſame, at or before the tenth day of September then next enſuing; which ſaid ſum being neglected to be paid, the ſaid Fens by reaſon thereof could not be Drained, according to the Form by the ſaid Law intended: The ſaid Commiſſioners therefore well tendring the great profit that would ariſe to all perſons concerned, and to the Commonwealth in general, if the ſame might be Drained, at ſeveral Seſſions of Sewers held at Market-Deeping the twentieth day of September, in the ſaid one and fourtieth year of Queen Elizabeth, and at Market-Deeping aforeſaid the twentieth day of Auguſt, in the two and fourtieth year of the Reign of the ſaid Queen, did Ordain and Decree, That the ſaid Fens and Marſh-Grounds ſhould be forthwith taken in hand to be Drained, and that Thomas Lovell Eſquire (a man ſkilful in Works of that nature) ſhould be admitted to undertake take the ſame under the Covenants therein mentioned: And in purſuance thereof, the ſaid Thomas Lovell did undertake the ſaid Works, and made ſome progreſs therein; and afterwards one third part of the ſaid ſeveral Fens were by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers ſet out by Metes and Bounds, and alotted to the ſaid Thomas Lovell in recompence of his coſts, charges and endeavours, applied and expended therein; And after, the ſaid third part was by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers decreed to the ſaid Thomas Lovell, and his Heirs, in recompence of his ſaid Work of Draining, and of his charges and expences therein, to have and to hold to the ſaid Thomas Lovell, his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever.

A third part aſſigned and ſet out to Thomas Lovell.

II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made at Weſtminſter in the firſt year of King James, entituled, An Act for relief of Thomas Lovell Eſq; the above-recited Decrees of Sewers were Ratified and Confirmed; And the ſaid third part of the ſaid Fens and Marſh-grounds, as they were allotted and ſet out by the ſaid Commiſſioners, were by the ſaid Act Ordained, Enacted and Eſtabliſhed to be held by the ſaid Thomas Lovell, his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, under the Proviſoes, Conditions and Appointments in the ſaid Decrees, and Act of Parliament mentioned and expreſſed, as by the ſaid Act of Parliament and Decrees of Sewers more fully may appear. (2) And whereas the ſaid Thomas Lovell immediately after the making the ſaid Act of Parliament entred into the ſaid Lands ſet out and aſſigned as a third part of the ſaid ſeveral Fens, and by vertue of the ſaid Decrees and Act of Parliament became ſeized thereof, and he and his Heirs and Aſſigns have ever ſince, till of late years, held and enjoyed the ſame, until (by ſome neglect in the Aſſigns of the ſaid Thomas Lovell, and failer in the Maintaining, Scowring and Cleanſing the ſaid Banks, Rivers, Sewers, and other Works neceſſary thereunto) occaſioned by ſome differences ariſing between the ſaid Aſſigns of the ſaid Thomas Lovell, and the Lords Owners and Commoners of the ſaid Fens, about the enjoyment of ſome additional recompence allotted to the ſaid Aſſigns of the ſaid Thomas Lovell, by a ſubſequent Law of Sewers (made at Spalding) not only the ſaid Fens and Marſh-grounds are returned into their ancient condition of being hurtfully ſurrounded and annoyed with waters; but a great and conſiderable part of ſome adjacent Towns of Holland have been overflowed and laid deſolate, and many habitations and families who formerly lived comfortably there, utterly ruined and deſtroyed thereby, and yet continue in manifeſt danger in all ſeaſons of wet weather and floods, to fall into the ſaid calamities; which great miſchief is by long and indubitable experience found to ariſe principally from ſeveral imperfections in the ſaid Decrees and Act of Parliament.

III. To the end therefore that the ſaid Countrey, being in its own nature very rich and fertile, and wherein the King, and Queens Majeſty his Mother, have large Poſſeſſions, (and many ancient Families and Inhabitants their whole ſubſiſtence) may not longer remain in ſuch manifeſt danger of being utterly loſt, nor the Commonwealth continue longer deprived of thoſe advantages which would ariſe from the performance of the ſaid Works:

IV. Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Decrees, and Act of Parliament above mentioned, and every Clauſe, Article and thing therein contained, other then ſuch as are herein after mentioned, enacted, ratified and confirmed, ſhall be, and are hereby repealed and made void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever.

III. And it is further by authority aforeſaid enacted, That the ſaid Officers and Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them (in caſes where greater example or puniſhment is needful) may alſo bind the perſon or perſons ſo offending, to their good behaviour, with or without Securities, as occaſion ſhall be.

Imbezelling of Stores and Ammunition of the Navy.

IV. And whereas divers of his Majeſties Stores and Ammunition pertaining to his Navy and Shipping, or Service thereof, are imbezelled or filched away, (2) it is by the like authority enacted, That the ſaid principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, have power in like manner to enquire and ſearch for the ſame in all places, as Juſtices of Peace may do in caſe of Felony, and puniſh the Offendors by ſuch Fine and Impriſonment as aforeſaid, and cauſe the Goods to be brought in again: (3) And if the Offence be of ſuch nature as doth require an higher and ſeverer puniſhment, Then that they, any one or more of them may commit ſuch Offendor to the next Gaol, or to the cuſtody of their Meſſenger or Meſſengers aforeſaid, till he or they offending enter into Recognizance, with Surety or Sureties, according to the nature of the Offence, to appear and anſwer to the ſame in his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, or other Court where his Majeſty ſhall queſtion him or them for the ſame within one year following, on Proceſs duly ſerved for that purpoſe on ſuch Offendor or Offendors.

V. And it is Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That they the ſaid principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, may put in uſe the ſaid powers on the Offendors as aforeſaid, in all places where they hold an Office for his Majeſty, as well within Liberties as without; Any Law, Statute, Ordinance, Charter or Priviledge to the contrary not withſtanding.

Whereas the Art of Working and Throwing of Silk, for many years paſt (giving Imployment to the Poor of the Kingdom) hath of late been obſtructed, by reaſon that the preſent Maſter and Wardens, and part of the Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of the Trade, Art or Myſtery of Silk-Throwers of the City of London, have endeavoured to put in execution a certain By-law, by them made near forty years ſince, reſtraining and ſtinting the Freemen of the ſaid Company, that they ſhall not work with above the Number of One hundred and ſixty Spindles at one time, And the Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Company with above the number of Two hundred and forty Spindles: which is an hindrance to the Growth and Improvement of the ſaid Art, and a reſtraint to the Working of Silks in this Kingdom, which is of late much improved, and to the Subſiſtence and Livelyhood of many thouſand poor Families, and puts the Traders in that Commodity upon a neceſſity of uſing Foreign Thrown-Silk:

Silk-Throwing obſtructed by a By-law.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, That the ſaid By-law is hereby Void and Null, and the ſaid Company are hereby diſabled from making any By-law for the future, which ſhall reſtrain or limit the Number of Mills, Spindles, or other Utenſis to be imployed by any of the Freemen of the ſaid Company, in or about the ſaid Art or Myſtery.

The ſame By-Law made void, and the Company diſabled to make any ſuch reſtraint.

III. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Silk-winder or Doubler ſhall hereafter be found faulty in unjuſtly, deceitfully, or falſly purloyning, imbezelling, pawning, ſelling, or detaining any Silk committed to his or their Truſt, That then any Juſtice of Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, or chief Officer of any County, Liberty or Corporation, ſhall immediately upon conviction by confeſſion of the party, or upon the Oath of one Witneſs before any of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or other Officer, commit to Priſon or to the houſe of Correction the Offender, till ſatisfaction be given to the party wronged, or puniſhment inflicted, as by an Act of Parliament, Intituled, An Act for regulating the Trade of Silk-Throwing, made this preſent Parliament, is directed and appointed; Any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Silk-winders or doublers offending to be committed to priſon.

14 Car. 2. c. 15. Sect. 6. N. 2.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no By-law already made, or hereafter to be made by the ſaid Company, ſhall or may limit or confine any Freeman of the ſaid Company to take a leſs number then three Apprentices at any time.

Apprentices.

The proof to lie upon the Defendant when he bought the Corn Forfeiture.

How to be diſpoſed of

IV. Where there is no Clerk of the Market, then what perſons are appointed to Seal the Meaſures.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for every perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, or any of them to whom any Salt Rent-corn, or Tythe-corn is reſerved, or due by any Leaſe, Grant, Contract, Cuſtom or Uſage, to receive and take all ſuch Rent, or other Duties of Salt and Corn, as is or ſhall be ſo reſerved, or due, or the juſt and full value thereof in ready money, according to the proportion and quantity and by the like Meaſures, and in ſuch manner as the ſame were due and paid before the beginning of this Parliament; Any thing herein, or in any other Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

This Act ſhall not extend to Rent-corn or Tythe-corn.
